

Test on "In a Far Country"

Do two of the following questions:

1. Place the first sentence of the second paragraph in your own words but retaining the intentions of the narrator. (5pts)
2. How are Weatherbee's and Cuthfert's reasons for journeying to the Northland different from each other's? (5pts)
3. The seven deadly sins are gluttony, sloth, envy, lust, greed, pride, and anger. Choose three from this list and explain how Weatherbee and Cuthfert are guilty of these three. (5pts)

EVERYONE MUST DO NUMBER 4

4. This is a passage from "The White Silence" by London:

Nature has many tricks wherewith she convinces man of his finity,... but the most tremendous... is the White Silence. All movement ceases, the sky clears, the heavens are as brass; the slightest whisper seems sacrilege, and man becomes timid, affrighted at the sound of his own voice. Sole speck of life journeying across the ghostly wastes of a dead world... Strange thoughts arise unsummoned, and the mystery of all things strives for utterance.

- Find a similar passage in "In a Far Country" (Identify page number and lines.) and explain how the two passages relate to one another. (10pts)